THE PAYMENT OF BONUS ORDINANCE, 1965

No. 3 OF 1965

Promulgated by the President in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the payment of bonus to persons employed in certain establishments and for matters connected therewith.

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

Short title, extent, commencement and application.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Payment of Bonus Ordinance, 1965.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

(4) Save as otherwise provided, it shall apply to—

(a) every factory; and

(b) every other establishment in which twenty or more persons are employed on any day during an accounting year, in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1964, and in respect of every subsequent accounting year.

(5) An establishment to which this Ordinance applies under clause (b) of sub-section (4) shall continue to be governed by this Ordinance notwithstanding that the number of persons employed therein falls below twenty.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(1) "accounting year" means—

(i) in relation to a corporation, the year ending on the day on which the books and accounts of the corporation are to be closed and balanced;

(ii) in relation to a company, the period in respect of which any profit and loss account of the company laid before it in annual general meeting is made up, whether that period is a year or not;

(iii) in any other case—

(a) the year commencing on the 1st day of April; or

(b) if the accounts of an establishment maintained by the employer thereof are closed and balanced on any day other than the 31st day of March, then, at the option of the employer, the year ending on the day on which its accounts are so closed and balanced:

Provided that an option once exercised by the employer under paragraph (b) of this sub-clause shall not again be exercised except with the previous permission in writing of the prescribed authority and upon such conditions as that authority may think fit;

(2) "agricultural income" shall have the same meaning as in the Income-tax Act;

(3) "agricultural income-tax law" means any law for the time being in force relating to the levy of tax on agricultural income;

(4) "allocable surplus" means—

(a) in relation to an employer, being a company (other than a banking company) which has not made the arrangements prescribed under the Income-tax Act for the declaration and payment within India of the dividends payable out of its profits in accordance with the provisions of section 194 of that Act, sixty-seven per cent. of the available surplus in an accounting year;

(b) in any other case, sixty per cent. of such available surplus, and includes any amount treated as such under the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 34;

(5) "appropriate Government" means—

(i) in relation to an establishment in respect of which the appropriate Government under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, is the Central Government, the Central Government;

14 of 1947.

(ii) in relation to any other establishment, the Government of the State in which that other establishment is situate;

(6) "available surplus" means the available surplus computed under section 5;

(7) "award" means an interim or a final determination of any industrial dispute or of any question relating thereto by any Labour Court, Industrial Tribunal or National Tribunal constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or by any other authority constituted under any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State and includes an arbitration award made under section 10A of that Act or under that law;

14 of 1947.

(8) "banking company" means a banking company as defined in section 5 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, and includes the State Bank of India, any subsidiary bank as defined in the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959, and any other banking institution which may be notified in this behalf by the Central Government;

10 of 1949.

38 of 1959.

(9) "company" means any company as defined in section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956, and includes a foreign company within the meaning of section 591 of that Act;

1 of 1956.

(10) "co-operative society" means a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912, or any other law for the time being in force in any State relating to co-operative societies;

2 of 1912.

(11) "corporation" means any body corporate established by or under any Central, Provincial or State Act but does not include a company or a co-operative society;

(12) "direct tax" means—

(a) any tax chargeable under—

(i) the Income-tax Act;

(ii) the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963;

14 of 1963.

(iii) the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964;

7 of 1964.

(iv) the agricultural income-tax law; and

(b) any other tax which, having regard to its nature or incidence, may be declared by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, to be a direct tax for the purposes of this Ordinance;

(13) "employee" means any person (other than an apprentice) employed on a salary or wage not exceeding one thousand and six hundred rupees per mensem in any industry to do any skilled or unskilled manual, supervisory, managerial, administrative, technical or clerical work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be express or implied;

(14) "employer" includes—

(i) in relation to an establishment which is a factory, the owner or occupier of the factory, including the agent of such owner or occupier, the legal representative of a deceased owner or occupier and where a person has been named as a manager of the factory under clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Factories Act, 1948, the person so named; and 63 of 1948.

(ii) in relation to any other establishment, the person who, or the authority which, has the ultimate control over the affairs of the establishment and where the said affairs are entrusted to a manager, managing director or managing agent, such manager, managing director or managing agent;

(15) "establishment in private sector" means any establishment other than an establishment in public sector;

(16) "establishment in public sector" means an establishment owned, controlled or managed by—

(a) a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956; 1 of 1956.

(b) a corporation which is owned, controlled or managed by the Government or the Reserve Bank of India;

(c) a corporation in which not less than forty per cent. of its capital is held (whether singly or taken together) by—

(i) the Government; or

(ii) the Reserve Bank of India; or

(iii) a corporation owned by the Government or the Reserve Bank of India;

(17) "factory" shall have the same meaning as in clause (m) of section 2 of the Factories Act, 1948; 63 of 1948.

(18) "gross profits" means the gross profits calculated under section 4;

(19) "Income-tax Act" means the Income-tax Act, 1961; 43 of 1961.

(20) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Ordinance;

(21) "salary or wage" means all remuneration (other than remuneration in respect of over-time work) capable of being expressed in terms of money, which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to an employee in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment and includes dearness allowance (that is to say, all cash payments, by whatever name called, paid to an employee on account of a rise in the cost of living), but does not include—

(i) any other allowance which the employee is for the time being entitled to;

(ii) the value of any house accommodation or of supply of light, water, medical attendance or other amenity or of any service or of any concessional supply of foodgrains or other articles;

(iii) any travelling concession;

(iv) any bonus (including incentive, production and attendance bonus);

(v) any contribution paid or payable by the employer to any pension fund or provident fund or for the benefit of the employee under any law for the time being in force;

(vi) any retrenchment compensation or any gratuity or other retirement benefit payable to the employee or any ex gratia payment made to him;

(vii) any commission payable to the employee.

Explanation.—Where an employee is given in lieu of the whole or part of the salary or wage payable to him, free food allowance or free food by his employer, such food allowance or the value of such food shall, for the purpose of this clause, be deemed to form part of the salary or wage of such employee;

(22) words and expressions used but not defined in this Ordinance and defined in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

14 of 1947.

3. Where an establishment consists of different departments or undertakings or has branches, whether situated in the same place or in different places, all such departments or undertakings or branches shall be treated as parts of the same establishment for the purpose of computation of bonus under this Ordinance:

Establishments to include departments, undertakings and branches.

Provided that where for any accounting year a separate balance-sheet and profit and loss account are prepared and maintained in respect of any such department or undertaking or branch, then, such department or undertaking or branch shall be treated as a separate establishment for the purpose of computation of bonus under this Ordinance for that year, unless such department or undertaking or branch was, immediately before the commencement of that accounting year treated as part of the establishment for the purpose of computation of bonus.

Computation of gross profits.

4. The gross profits derived by an employer from an establishment in respect of any accounting year shall—

(a) in the case of a banking company, be calculated in the manner specified in the First Schedule;

(b) in any other case, be calculated in the manner specified in the Second Schedule.

Computation of available surplus.

5. The available surplus in respect of any accounting year shall be the gross profits for that year after deducting therefrom the sums referred to in section 6.

Sums deductible rom gross profits.

6. The following sums shall be deducted from the gross profits as prior charges, namely:—

(a) any amount by way of depreciation admissible in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 32 of the Income-tax Act, or in accordance with the provisions of the agricultural income-tax law, as the case may be:

Provided that where an employer has been paying bonus to his employees under an award, settlement or agreement made before the commencement of this Ordinance and subsisting at such commencement after deducting from the gross profits notional normal depreciation, then, the amount of depreciation to be deducted under this clause shall, at the option of such employer (such option to be exercised once and within one year of the commencement of this Ordinance) continue to be such notional normal depreciation;

(b) any amount by way of development rebate or development allowance which the employer is entitled to deduct from his income under the Income-tax Act;

(c) subject to the provisions of section 7, any direct tax which the employer is liable to pay for the accounting year in respect of his income, profits and gains during that year;

(d) such further sums as are specified in respect of the employer in the Third Schedule.

Calculation of direct tax payable by the employer.

7. For the purpose of clause (c) of section 6, any direct tax payable by the employer for any accounting year shall, subject to the following provisions, be calculated at the rates applicable to the income of the employer for that year, namely:—

(a) in calculating such tax no account shall be taken of—

(i) any loss incurred by the employer in respect of any previous accounting year and carried forward under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes;

(ii) any arrears of depreciation which the employer is entitled to add to the amount of the allowance for depreciation for any following accounting year or years under sub-section (2) of section 32 of the Income-tax Act;

(iii) any exemption conferred on the employer under section 84 of the Income-tax Act or of any deduction to which he is entitled under sub-section (1) of section 101 of that Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Finance Act, 1965;

10 of 1965.

(b) where the employer is a religious or a charitable institution to which the provisions of section 32 do not apply and the whole or any part of its income is exempt from tax under the Income-tax Act, then, with respect to the income so exempted, such institution shall be treated as if it were a company in which the public are substantially interested within the meaning of that Act;

(c) where the employer is an individual or a Hindu undivided family, the tax payable by such employer under the Income-tax Act shall be calculated on the basis that the income derived by him from the establishment is his only income;

(d) where the income of any employer includes any profits and gains derived from the export of any goods or merchandise out of India and any rebate on such income is allowed under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes, then, no account shall be taken of such rebate;

(e) no account shall be taken of any rebate (other than development rebate or development allowance) or credit or relief or deduction (not hereinbefore mentioned in this section) in the payment of any direct tax allowed under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes or under the relevant annual Finance Act, for the development of any industry.

Eligibility for bonus.

8. Every employee shall be entitled to be paid by his employer in an accounting year, bonus, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance provided he has worked in the establishment for not less than thirty working days in that year.

Disqualification for bonus.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, an employee shall be disqualified from receiving bonus under this Ordinance, if he is dismissed from service for—

(a) fraud; or

(b) riotous or violent behaviour while on the premises of the establishment; or

(c) theft, misappropriation or sabotage of any property of the establishment.

Payment of minimum bonus.

10. Every employer shall be bound to pay to every employee who has worked in the establishment for all the working days in an accounting year a minimum bonus which shall be four per cent. of the salary or wage of the employee for the accounting year or forty rupees, whichever is higher, whether there are profits in the accounting year or not:

Provided that where such employee has not completed fifteen years of age at the beginning of the accounting year, the provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to such employee as if for the words "forty rupees", the words "twenty-five rupees" were substituted.

Payment of maximum bonus.

11. (1) Where in respect of any accounting year the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employees under section 10, the employer shall, in lieu of such minimum bonus, be bound to pay bonus to every employee who has worked in the establishment for all the working days in the accounting year which shall be an amount in proportion to the salary or wage of the employee for the accounting year subject to a maximum of twenty per cent. of such salary or wage.

(2) In computing the allocable surplus under this section, the amount set on or the amount set off under the provisions of section 15 shall be taken into account in accordance with the provisions of that section.

Calculation of bonus with respect to certain employees.

12. Where the salary or wage of an employee exceeds seven hundred and fifty rupees per mensem, the bonus payable to such employee under section 10 or, as the case may be, under section 11, shall be calculated as if his salary or wage were seven hundred and fifty rupees per mensem.

Proportionate reduction of bonus in certain cases.

13. Where an employee has not worked for all the working days in any accounting year, the amount of bonus to which he shall be entitled under section 10 or, as the case may be, under section 11, shall be proportionately reduced.

Computation of number of working days.

14. In computing for the purposes of sections 10 and 11 the number of days on which an employee has worked in an establishment in any accounting year, the days on which—

(a) he has been laid off under an agreement or as permitted by standing orders under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946, or under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or under any other law applicable to the establishment;

20 of 1946.
14 of 1947.

(b) he has been on leave with salary or wage;

(c) he has been absent due to temporary disablement caused by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment; and

(d) the employee has been on maternity leave with salary or wage, during the accounting year shall be included.

Set on and set off of allocable surplus.

15. (1) Where for any accounting year the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of maximum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under section 11, then, the excess shall, subject to a limit of twenty per cent. of the total salary or wage of the employees employed in the establishment in that accounting year, be carried forward for being set on in the succeeding accounting year and so on up to and inclusive of the fourth accounting year to be utilised for the purpose of payment of bonus in the manner illustrated in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) Where for any accounting year, there is no available surplus or the allocable surplus in respect of that year falls short of the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under section 10, and there is no amount or sufficient amount carried forward and set on under sub-section (1) which could be utilised for the purpose of payment of the minimum bonus, then, such minimum amount or the deficiency, as the case may be, shall be carried forward for being set off in the succeeding accounting year and so on up to and inclusive of the fourth accounting year in the manner illustrated in the Fourth Schedule.

(3) The principle of set on and set off as illustrated in the Fourth Schedule shall apply to all other cases not covered by sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) for the purpose of payment of bonus under this Ordinance.

(4) Where in any accounting year any amount has been carried forward and set on or set off under this section, then, in calculating bonus for the succeeding accounting year, the amount of set on or set off brought forward from the earliest accounting year shall first be taken into account.

Special provisions with respect to certain establishments.

16. (1) Where an establishment is newly set up, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, the employees of such establishment shall be entitled to be paid bonus under this Ordinance only—

(a) from the accounting year in which the employer derives profit from such establishment; or

(b) from the sixth accounting year following the accounting year in which the employer sells the products manufactured by him or renders services, as the case may be, from such establishment,

whichever is earlier:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall, save as otherwise provided in section 33, be construed as entitling the employees of any such establishment to be paid bonus in respect of any accounting year prior to the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1964.

Explanation I.—For the purpose of this section, an establishment shall not be deemed to be newly set up merely by reason of a change in its location, management, name or ownership.

Explanation II.—For the purpose of clause (a), an employer shall not be deemed to have derived profit in any accounting year unless—

(a) he has made provision for that year's depreciation to which he is entitled under the Income-tax Act or, as the case may be, under the agricultural income-tax law; and

(b) the arrears of such depreciation and losses incurred by him in respect of the establishment for the previous accounting years have been fully set off against his profits.

Explanation III.—For the purpose of clause (b), sale of the articles produced or manufactured during the course of the trial run of any factory or of the prospecting stage of any mine or an oil-field shall not be taken into consideration and where any question arises with regard to such production or manufacture, the decision of the appropriate Government, made after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of representing the case, shall be final and shall not be called in question by any court or other authority.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall, so far as may be, apply to new departments or undertakings or branches set up by existing establishments:

Provided that if an employer in relation to an existing establishment consisting of different departments or undertakings or branches (whether or not in the same industry) set up at different periods has, before the commencement of this Ordinance, been paying bonus to the employees of all such departments or undertakings or branches irrespective of the date on which such departments or undertakings or branches were set up, on the basis of the consolidated profits computed in respect of all such departments or undertakings or branches, then, such employer shall be liable to pay bonus in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance to the employees of all such departments or undertakings or branches (whether set up before or after such commencement) on the basis of the consolidated profits computed as aforesaid.

Adjustment of customary or interim bonus against bonus payable under the Ordinance.

17. Where in any accounting year—

(a) an employer has paid any puja bonus or other customary bonus to an employee; or

(b) an employer has paid a part of the bonus payable under this Ordinance to an employee before the date on which such bonus becomes payable,

then, the employer shall be entitled to deduct the amount of bonus so paid from the amount of bonus payable by him to the employee under this Ordinance in respect of that accounting year and the employee shall be entitled to receive only the balance.

Deduction of certain amounts from bonus payable under the Ordinance.

18. Where in any accounting year, an employee is found guilty of misconduct causing financial loss to the employer, then, it shall be lawful for the employer to deduct the amount of loss from the amount of bonus payable by him to the employee under this Ordinance in respect of that accounting year only and the employee shall be entitled to receive the balance, if any.

Time-limit for payment of bonus.

19. All amounts payable to an employee by way of bonus under this Ordinance shall be paid in cash by his employer—

(a) where there is a dispute regarding payment of bonus pending before any authority under section 22, within a month of the settlement or award in respect of such dispute;

(b) in any other case, within a period of eight months from the close of the accounting year:

Provided that the appropriate Government or such authority as the appropriate Government may specify in this behalf may, upon an application made to it by the employer and for sufficient reasons, by order, extend the said period of eight months to such further period or periods as it thinks fit; so, however, that the total period so extended shall not in any case exceed two years.

Application of Ordinance to establishments in public sector in certain cases.

20. (1) If in any accounting year an establishment in public sector sells any products manufactured by it or renders any services, in competition with an establishment in private sector, and the income from such sale or services or both is not less than twenty per cent. of the gross income of the establishment in public sector for that year, then, the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply in relation to such establishment in public sector as they apply in relation to a like establishment in private sector.

(2) An establishment in public sector to which this Ordinance applies shall continue to be governed by this Ordinance notwithstanding that in any subsequent accounting year its income from the sale of products manufactured by it or from services rendered or from both, in competition with an establishment in private sector, falls below twenty per cent. of its gross income for that accounting year.

Recovery of bonus due from an employer.

21. Where any money is due to an employee by way of bonus from his employer under a settlement or an award, the employee himself or any other person authorised by him in writing in this behalf, or in the case of the death of the employee, his assignee or heirs may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, make an application to the appropriate Government for the recovery of the money due to him, and if the appropriate Government or such authority as the appropriate Government may specify in this behalf is satisfied that any money is so due, it shall issue a certificate for that amount to the Collector who shall proceed to recover the same in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue:

Provided that every such application shall be made within one year from the date on which the money became due to the employee from the employer:

Provided further that any such application may be entertained after the expiry of the said period of one year, if the appropriate Government is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making the application within the said period.

Explanation.—In this section and in sections 22, 23, 24 and 25, "employee" includes a person who is entitled to the payment of bonus under this Ordinance but who is no longer in employment.

Reference of disputes under the Ordinance.

22. Where any dispute or difference arises between an employer and his employees with respect to the calculation of bonus under this Ordinance or with respect to the application of this Ordinance to an establishment in public sector, then, such dispute shall be deemed to be an industrial dispute within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or of any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State and the provisions of that Act or, as the case may be, such law, shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, apply accordingly.

14 of 1947.

Presumption about accuracy of balance-sheet and profit and loss account of corporations and companies.

23. (1) Where, during the course of proceedings before any arbitrator or Tribunal under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or under any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State (hereinafter in this section and in sections 24 and 25 referred to as the "said authority") to which any dispute or difference of the nature specified in section 22 has been referred, the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account of an employer, being a corporation or a company (other than a banking company) duly audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or by auditors duly qualified to act as auditors of companies under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, are produced before it, then, the said authority may presume the statements and particulars contained in such balance-sheet and profit and loss account to be accurate and it shall not be necessary for the corporation or the company to prove the accuracy of such statements and particulars by the filing of an affidavit or by any other mode:

14 of 1947.

Provided that where the said authority is satisfied that the statements and particulars contained in the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account of the corporation or the company are not accurate, it may take such steps as it thinks necessary to find out the accuracy of such statements and particulars.

(2) When an application is made to the said authority by any trade union being a party to the dispute or difference or where there is no trade union, by the employees being a party to the dispute or difference, requiring any clarification relating to any item in the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account, it may, after satisfying itself that such clarification is necessary, by order, direct the corporation or, as the case may be, the company, to furnish to the trade union or the employees such clarification within such time as may be specified in the direction and the corporation or, as the case may be, the company, shall comply with such direction.

Audited accounts of banking companies not to be questioned.

24. (1) Where any dispute or difference of the nature specified in section 22 between an employer, being a banking company, and its employees has been referred to the said authority under that section and during the course of proceedings the accounts of the banking company duly audited are produced before it, the said authority shall not permit any trade union or employees to question the correctness of such accounts, but the trade union or the employees may be permitted to obtain from the banking company such information as is necessary for verifying the amount of bonus due under this Ordinance.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall enable the trade union or the employees to obtain any information which the banking company is not compelled to furnish under the provisions of section 34A of the Banking Companies Act, 1949. 10 of 1949.

Audit of accounts of employers, not being corporations or companies.

25. (1) Where any dispute or difference of the nature specified in section 22 between an employer, not being a corporation or a company, and his employees has been referred to the said authority under that section and the accounts of such employer audited by any auditor duly qualified to act as auditor of companies under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, are produced before the 1 of 1956. said authority, the provisions of section 23, shall, so far as may be, apply to the accounts so audited.

(2) When the said authority finds that the accounts of such employer have not been audited by any such auditor and it is of opinion that an audit of the accounts of such employer is necessary for deciding the question referred to it, then, it may, by order, direct the employer to get his accounts audited within such time as may be specified in the direction or within such further time as it may allow by such auditor or auditors as it thinks fit and thereupon the employer shall comply with such direction.

(3) Where an employer fails to get the accounts audited under sub-section (2) the said authority may, without prejudice to the provisions of section 28, get the accounts audited by such auditor or auditors as it thinks fit.

(4) When the accounts are audited under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) the provisions of section 23 shall, so far as may be, apply to the accounts so audited.

(5) The expenses of, and incidental to, any audit under sub-section (3) (including the remuneration of the auditor or auditors) shall be determined by the said authority (which determination shall be final) and paid by the employer and in default of such payment shall be recoverable from the employer in the manner provided in section 21.

Maintenance of registers, records, etc.

26. Every employer shall prepare and maintain such registers, records and other documents in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Inspectors.

27. (1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspectors for the purposes of this Ordinance and may define the limits within which they shall exercise jurisdiction.

(2) An Inspector appointed under sub-section (1) may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any of the provisions of this Ordinance has been complied with—

(a) require an employer to furnish such information as he may consider necessary;

(b) at any reasonable time, enter any establishment or any premises connected therewith and require any one found in charge thereof to produce before him for examination any accounts, books, registers and other documents relating to the employment of persons or the payment of salary or wage or bonus in the establishment;

(c) examine with respect to any matter relevant to any of the purposes aforesaid, the employer, his agent or servant or any other person found in charge of the establishment or any premises connected therewith or any person whom the Inspector has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been an employee in the establishment;

(d) make copies of, or take extracts from, any book, register or other document maintained in relation to the establishment;

(e) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.

(3) Every Inspector shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860.

(4) Any person required to produce any accounts, book, register or other document or thing or to give information by an Inspector under sub-section (1) shall be legally bound to do so.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall enable an Inspector to require a banking company to furnish or disclose any statement or information or to produce, or give inspection of, any of its books of account or other documents, which a banking company cannot be compelled to furnish, disclose, produce or give inspection of, under the provisions of section 34A of the Banking Companies Act, 1949. 10 of 1949.

Penalty.

28. If any person—

(a) contravenes any of the provisions of this Ordinance or any rule made thereunder; or

(b) to whom a direction is given or a requisition is made under this Ordinance fails to comply with the direction or requisition, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Offences by companies.

29. (1) If the person committing an offence under this Ordinance is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Cognizance of offences.

30. (1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Ordinance, save on complaint made by or under the authority of the appropriate Government.

(2) No court inferior to that of a presidency magistrate or a magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Ordinance.

Protection of action taken under the Ordinance.

31. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or any officer of the Government for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Ordinance or any rule made thereunder.

Ordinance not to apply to certain classes of employees

32. Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to—

(i) employees employed by any insurer carrying on general insurance business and the employees employed by the Life Insurance Corporation of India;

(ii) seamen as defined in clause (42) of section 3 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958;

44 of 1958.

(iii) employees registered or listed under any scheme made under the Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1948, and employed by registered or listed employers;

9 of 1948.

(iv) employees employed in an establishment engaged in any industry carried on by or under the authority of any department of the Central Government or a State Government or a local authority;

(v) employees employed by—

(a) the Indian Red Cross Society or any other institution of a like nature (including its branches);

(b) universities and other educational institutions; and

(c) institutions (including hospitals, chambers of commerce and social welfare institutions) established not for purposes of profit;

(vi) employees employed through contractors on building operations;

(vii) employees—

(a) who have entered before the commencement of this Ordinance into any agreement or settlement with their employers for payment of an annual bonus linked with production or productivity in lieu of bonus based on profits; or

(b) who may enter after such commencement into any agreement or settlement with their employers for payment of such annual bonus in lieu of the bonus payable under this Ordinance, for the period for which such agreement or settlement is in operation;

(viii) employees employed by the Reserve Bank of India;

(a) the Industrial Finance Corporation of India;

(b) any Financial Corporation established under section 3, or any Joint Financial Corporation established under section 3A, of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951; 63 of 1951

(c) the Deposit Insurance Corporation;

(d) the Agricultural Refinance Corporation;

(e) the Unit Trust of India; and

(f) the Industrial Development Bank of India;

(x) employees employed in any establishment in public sector, save as otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

Ordinance to apply to certain pending disputes regarding payment of bonus.

33. Where immediately before the 2nd September, 1964, any industrial dispute regarding payment of bonus relating to any accounting year ending on any day in the year 1962, and any subsequent accounting year was pending before the appropriate Government or before any Tribunal or other authority constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or under any corresponding law relating to 14 of 1947 investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in a State, such dispute shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Explanation.—A dispute shall be deemed to be pending before the appropriate Government where no decision of that Government on any application made to it under the said Act or such corresponding law for reference of that dispute to adjudication has been made or where having received the report of the Conciliation Officer (by whatever designation known) under the said Act or law, the appropriate Government has not passed any order refusing to make such reference.

Effect of laws and agreements inconsistent with the Ordinance.

34. (1) Save as otherwise provided, the provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the terms of any award, agreement, settlement or contract of service made before the commencement of this Ordinance:

Provided that if in respect of any accounting year the total bonus payable to all the employees in any establishment under this Ordinance is less than the total bonus paid or payable to all the employees in that establishment in the base year under such award, agreement, settlement or contract of service, then, the employees in the establishment shall be paid bonus in respect of that accounting year as if the allocable surplus for that accounting year were an amount which bears the same ratio to the gross profits of the said accounting year as the total bonus paid or payable in the base year bears to the gross profits of the base year:

Provided further that nothing contained in the preceding proviso shall entitle any employee to be paid bonus exceeding twenty per cent. of his salary or wage for the accounting year:

Provided also that if in any accounting year the allocable surplus computed under the first proviso exceeds the amount of maximum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under the second proviso, then, the provisions of section 15 shall, so far as may be, apply to such excess.

Explanation I.—For the purpose of the first proviso to this sub-section, the total bonus in respect of any accounting year shall be deemed to be less than the total bonus paid or payable in the base year if the ratio of bonus payable in the accounting year to the gross profits of that year is less than the ratio of bonus paid or payable in the base year to the gross profits of that year.

Explanation II.—In this sub-section,—

(a) "base year" means—

(i) in a case where immediately before the 2nd September, 1964, any dispute of the nature specified in section 33 was pending before the appropriate Government or before any Tribunal or other authority referred to in that section, the accounting year immediately preceding the accounting year to which the dispute relates;

(ii) in any other case, the period of twelve months immediately preceding the accounting year in which this Ordinance becomes applicable to the establishment;

(b) "gross profits" in relation to the base year or, as the case may be, to the accounting year means gross profits as reduced by the direct taxes payable by the employer in respect of that year.

(2) Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed to preclude employees employed in any establishment or class of establishments from entering into agreement with their employer for granting them an amount of bonus under a formula which is different from that under this Ordinance.

Saving.

35. Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948, or of any scheme made thereunder. 46 of 1948.

Power of exemption.

36. If the appropriate Government, having regard to the financial position and other relevant circumstances of any establishment or class of establishments, is of opinion that it will not be in public interest to apply all or any of the provisions of this Ordinance thereto, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt for such period as may be specified therein and subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, such establishment or class of establishments from all or any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Power to remove difficulties.

37. If any difficulty or doubt arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provision, not inconsistent with the purposes of this Ordinance as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the removal of the difficulty or doubt; and the order of the Central Government, in such cases, shall be final.

Power to make rules.

38. (1) The Central Government may make rules for the purposes of carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the authority for granting permission under the proviso to sub-clause (iii) of clause (1) of section 2;

(b) the preparation of registers, records and other documents and the form and manner in which such registers, records and documents may be maintained, under section 26;

(c) the powers which may be exercised by an Inspector under sub-section (2) of section 27;

(d) any other matter which is to be, or may be prescribed.

Application of certain laws not barred.

39. Save as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State.

14 of 1947.
